

Why did the Scots-Irish immigrate to the New World? Where did they settle?

1. The Scots-Irish left their homelands due to high rent and economic depression. 2. They settled in the Virginia and North Carolina mountain valleys, beyond the Appalachians.

Who founded Georgia? Why was it founded?

1. General James Oglethorpe 2. He founded Georgia to be a buffer zone between the English settlements in North America and Spanish-controlled Florida

Why may it be said that the Enlightenment further weakened the church's influence in society?

The Enlightenment placed less faith in God as an active force in the universe.

What was the Great Awakening?

The Great Awakening was a series of religious revivals throughout the colonies between 1720 and 1740.

Who was the most dynamic preacher of the Great Awakening?

George Whitefield

True or False. Many colleges were founded as a result of the Great Awakening.

True. These colleges were established primarily for the purpose of training New Light ministers.

True or False. Approximately 100,000 people had settled in Kentucky and Tennessee by 1790.

True

True or False. By 1840, less than 10 percent of the American Population lived west of the Alleghenies.

False. Over 1/3 of the population lived there.

Instead of being prepared for academic training, women were generally taught _____ skills

Homemaking

What was the Second Great Awakening?

The Second Great Awakening was a revival that took place in the beginning of the 1800s. Women and blacks were heavily involved in the movement, and it sparked the reforms of the 1830s and 1840s.